FEW NEW TRANSACTIONS

Local Trading Limited to Small Dwellings and Flats-Building News.

Interesting changes at the northwest orner of West End avenue and Eightyhird street are indicated in the incorpora tion at Albany yesterday of the West End-Eighty-third Corporation. Robert one of the incorporators, said last night that the property at the point is about to be sold and that the buyers are planning a building operation the nature of which he was not at liberty to Mr. Wood would not state how much property is to be purchased.

Three dwellings at the northwest con her of West End avenue and Eighty-third street, by numbers 481, 483 and 485 West street, by numbers 481, 483 and 485 West End avenue, were purchased last October by the 483 West End Avenue Company, Villiam L. Sdiphin president. They have combined frontages of 59 feet on the ave-tue and 79 feet on the street. To the borth on the avenue are two more dwell-egs, 487 and 489, owned by the Eastern Holding Company and Abram Baudouine respectively. Then comes the nine story lightengoliern apartment at the southwest Hohenzollern apartment at the southwest corner of Eighty-fourth street. On Eighty-hird street the dwellings adjoining the Sutphin plot, 307 and 309, are owned by Sallie C. Shaw and John R. Slattery re-spectively. It is said that the Baudouine property on the avenue is entailed and

The incorporators of the West End-Eighty-third Corporation besides Mr. Wood are M. Kumsman and George W. M. Clark. Mr. Wood said that the name of the principal in the company did not ap-

SUIT TO PARTITION ONE INCH.

One-Seventh Can't Be Bought, Own ers Being Incompetent. The smallest partition suit ever filed in the Supreme, Court came before Justice Bijur yesterday for the appointment of a referce to take testimony in the case. The suit is over an inch of land on the dydding line between the property at 65 and 67 East Ninety-first street. The suit is made necessary because the owners of is made necessary because the owners of one-seventh of the inch of land are incompetent.

In the petition for the appointment of the referee counsel for the plaintiff, Philip Voss, said that Voss has acquired title to six-sevenths of the inch of land and needs voss, said that Voss has acquired title to six-sevenths of the inch of land and needs the other seventh to clear the title to the strip on which the party wall has rested for years. The seventh interest is owned by William B. Forster and his sister Ethel, both of whom have been adjudged incompetent. The sister is now in the Manhattan State Hospital and papers in the case were served on the there after a guardian ad litem had been appointed. The lawyer said he had obtained title to the interest held by the brothers and sisters of the incompetent.

The court was asked to appoint Godfrey Goldmark referee because he had volunteered to act without a fee and was not a party in interest. In case the court preferred to select its own referee the lawyer asked that the referee be told that there wouldn't be much compensation in the case. The court appointed Mr. Goldmark.

QUEENSBORO PLAZA BUILDING. The first contracts for the extension of business to the south side of the Queens-boro Bridge plaza in Long Leland City have just been let and work will be comhave just been let and work will be com-menced this week upon the erection of three stores fronting seventy-five feet on the block between Raedde and Hunter streets, for the United Assets Corpora-tion. The buildings will be of brick and concrete. This property was recently pur-chased by the United Assets Corporation through William D. Bloodreed & Go. On through William D. Bloodgood & Co. Or the north side of the plaza business buildings have already been erected at a cost of over $3,500,000, but up to the present time the south side has been occupied by only small frame buildings. Other important developments are expected in this neighborhood in the near future.
